ES Summer Dance Intensive 2016

CLASS & TEACHERS INFORMATION

TIM FOURNIER (Hip Hop / Tap / Ballet) – Originally from Boston, Mr. Fournier trained and performed extensively in NY and LA. He now teaches Tap, Jazz, Contemporary, Ballet, and MV dance as well as choreographing for commercial TV, and industrial work in Bangkok. He is proud to have a wide variety of experience in both the professional dance world and dance studios.

Bangkok Studio Zoom Dance Teachers (Kru May / Kru Cake)

Kru May - With over a decade of experiences in the Dance Industry, he has been in various roles such as back up dancer for famous artists and celebrities, choreographer on events (music video and TV series), and a studio teacher. He has extensive experience bringing new technics from around the world to his students. He has ability in various styles but Street Jazz is the strongest. His movement is based on Jazz dance and combined with Hip Hop moves to make his dance style stronger and more dynamic! His friendly and enjoyable personality makes his class joyful and fun!

Kru Cake - A teacher, choreographer and dancer based in Bangkok, Kru Cake grew up studying in Jazz, Ballet and Contemporary Dance and started her professional dance career in 2007. She later became a jazz dance teacher at KPN music academy in 2010. She studied in NYC as an International Student at Broadway Dance Center, training with many great choreographers and teachers. She now choreographs for commercial work, corporate events, and university concert dance performances in Bangkok and Asia.
